Poem Composed of Statements Made by George W. Bush in July 2003

Our country made the right decision.
We're realists in this administration.
I believe God has called us into action.

First of all, the war on terror goes on.
The first value is, we're all God's children.
Our country made the right decision.

I am confident that Saddam Hussein had a weapons of mass destruction program. God has called us into action.

Nobody likes to have the whistle blown.
I think the intelligence I get is darn good. Our country made the right decision.

I did the right thing. A free Iraq will mean a peaceful world. My answer is, bring them on.
I believe God has called us into action.

The Al Qaeda terrorists still threaten our country, but they're on the run.
Our country made the right decision.
I believe God has called us into action.
